Scope

This policy applies to work arrangements where a managerial, professional, or excluded staff member works predominately at an off-campus location with only sporadic or occasional on-campus presence expected or required. It covers the approval and conditions of such work arrangements.

Note: Occasional and/or ad hoc requests to work from an off-campus location are not covered by this policy.

Note: Staff members working in bargaining unit positions are not covered by this policy, and terms for remote work for bargaining unit staff are governed by the applicable collective bargaining agreement.
